JEFF DAVIS MAKES PROMISED SPEECH

Rawhead and Bloody Bones From Arkansas Keeps His Word and Shocks Traditions.

HE SAYS THERE WAS NO USE IN WAITING

Washington, Dec. 11.—Senator Jefferson Davis, of Arkansas, went to the capitol today carrying a large dress suit case filled with documents he wished to have on his desk for reference during his speech on trusts.

When Senator Davis secured the floor and began his address all of the senators, both republicans and democrats, were in their seats and they gave strict attention to his remarks. The galleries were filled with spectators.

Senator Davis delivered a passionate address. After declaring that his bill, rigorously enforced, would kill the trusts, with dramatic effect, he challenged any senator to step forward and contest the issue with him.

No Respect for Traditions.

Senator Davis began by declaring that it was not his purpose to retain his seat in the senate until his hair shall have grown gray before taking up his work actively in that body.

He proposed to present quickly, fearlessly and as intelligently as he might some of the living, burning questions before the American people. It was for that reason he had determined to speak upon his bill to suppress trusts, pools, combinations and conspiracies.

"I undertake to say," he continued, "that if this bill is enacted into a law and faithfully and honestly executed, trusts will be wiped from the face of the earth and no longer will we feel their grinding and destroying grip on the arteries of trade and commerce."

A domestic corporation found fixing the price of any article would, by his bill, he said, have its charter forfeited and a foreign corporation guilty of such an act would not be allowed to do business in the United States.

Trust Evil a Cancerous Sore.

"The trust evil," said Senator Davis, "is a cancerous sore upon the body politic just as upon the human body. The only remedy, the only successful treatment, is the surgeon's knife. Cut it out by the root, destroy the virus before the whole body politic is affected and destroyed."

Congress should not hesitate in its work of destroying the trusts because of any fear of unsettling business, he continued. He spoke of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"Has it proven effectual?" he asked. "Has it destroyed a single trust? Under its operation have they not grown strong, defiant and arrogant? Almost for seventeen years the Sherman anti-trust law has been upon our statute books, more than four times as long as it took the north to wear out the south upon the bloody fields of battle. Nearly seven years of Mr. Roosevelt's strenuous term has passed with all the machinery of the government at his back, with the great power of the chief executive in his hands, yet I ask will some republican senator upon this floor tell me one trust that he has ever tamed, much less destroyed?"

CHICAGO AUDIENCES ARE KEPT FROM FIRE PANIC

Three Gatherings Held in Control While Nearby Blaze is Put Out.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Three audiences in the Fine Arts and Studebaker theater buildings were kept from panics last night by quick action of fire department officers and the theatrical managers after a fire had been discovered in the Chicago Musical College building, which adjoins the structures.

One alarmist was knocked unconscious in the lobby of the Studebaker building by an official of the theater after he had uttered one shout of "Fire." Hobart Chatfield-Taylor hurried to the stage of the music hall, where a performance was being given and calmed the people in the audience who had smelled the smoke and had begun to exhibit signs of alarm.

The fire, which was in the organ loft of the Chicago Musical College, on the seventh floor, was of little consequence, and readily was extinguished.

Department Worked Quietly.

Chief Horan ordered that all the fire department apparatus should be stopped a half block north of the theater buildings.

He also quickly stilled the gongs and the firemen's shouts. In the Studebaker theater, where a play was being witnessed by 1,400 persons, all the exits were taken in charge by ushers and firemen, who were ordered to throw them wide open at the first symptom of a panic. Less than a score of persons in the theater knew of the fire. On the tenth floor of the Fine Arts building 200 members of the Shakespeare club were gathered, and in a dramatic school on the eighth floor about seventy-five pupils and teachers were engaged. They were warned by attendants of the building and all left by the elevators.

A BOY'S LIFE IS WORTH $800; BUT HIS LEG WORTH $10,000

That's the Proportion as Shown in Suits in New York Courts.

New York, Dec. 11.—A boys' life is worth $800, but a boy's leg is worth $10,000 according to two verdicts brought in the supreme court here yesterday. In one part of the court John Sheehan, whose 12-year-old son was killed in a run-away accident, was awarded $800 damages, and in another part of the court a jury awarded $10,000 to Arthur Clements, a 10-year-old boy, who lost a leg through being run over by a trolley car.

Sergeant E. J. Caldwell, of the local U. S. marine recruiting station, whose term of enlistment expired on the 9th of the month, left yesterday for his home in Philadelphia, where he will remain indefinitely.

THREE BANKS WILL REOPEN TO DO BUSINESS

Concerns Hit by Suspension in Kansas City are on Their Feet Again.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 11.—Three additional small banks in Missouri and Kansas that suspended following the close last week of the National Bank of Commerce are to resume. They are the Union Avenue Bank of Commerce, of Kansas City, a branch of the National Bank of Commerce; the private bank of D. A. Becker, at Stoesbury, Mo., deposits about $20,000, and the State Bank of Armire, at Admire, Kansas, with deposits of $100,000.

The Union Avenue bank, when it closed, had $120,000 upon deposit in the National Bank of Commerce. The stockholders and patrons are to take up this amount and the bank may resume this afternoon or tomorrow. R. M. Cook, Missouri state bank examiner, said that the private bank at Stoesbury would reopen within a few days.

The State Bank of Admire, when it closed, had $28,000 on deposit in the National Bank of Commerce. This amount has been covered by stockholders in the institution.

With the reopening of these three banks all of the small banks in this part of the county affected by the National Bank of Commerce failure will have resumed.

CHICAGO IS NOT TO AID.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Members of the Chicago Clearing House committee stated last night that Chicago banks are not a party to any plan for rehabilitating the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City.

James B. Forgan, chairman of the committee, said: "So far as Chicago banks are concerned, they have nothing to do with any attempts which may be made to reopen the bank."

President John J. Mitchell, of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, who is a member of the clearing house committee, was also positive that the scheme to reopen the Kansas City bank did not include aid from Chicago institutions.

Two Men at Columbus Are Under Arrest—Mother Confesses—Flees.

Columbus, Ind., Dec. 11.—Clifford Groves and William Kollmeyer were arrested today on suspicion of complicity in the murder of the ten months old child of Mrs. Frances Cooper, who has confessed at Indianapolis to killing her child and throwing the body in a creek near here a few days ago, while she was visiting here. Mrs. Cooper said she was unable to take care of the child and as it bore the stigma of being the child of a convict she killed it out of love.

A PRETTY KILLING PULLED OFF BY NEW JERSEY

First Execution by Electricity is Unqualified Success.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 11.—The first official electrocution in New Jersey occurred in the state prison here a few minutes before six a. m. today, when Serverio Di Giovanni, an Italian, paid the death penalty for the murder of Joseph Sanson, a fellow countryman at Raritan last September. The electrocution was pronounced a success in every way.

Dr. Edward A. Spitzka, of Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, who was present announced that death was instantaneous. Eighteen hundred volts were turned on and the contact kept up for a minute and eight seconds. The current was turned on a second time for about four seconds. Dr. Spitzka afterward explained that the current was turned on the second time to quiet the reflective muscular movement that always occurs in a case of sudden death.

LOST TO FAMILY 23 YEARS; BACK FOR FORTUNE

Brooklyn Man Who Ran Away in Youth Returns to Old Home.

New York, Dec. 11.—Lost to his relatives and friends for 23 years, and for many years mourned as dead, Charles Werner has returned to his old home in Brooklyn. Since he left home Werner's father and mother have died, but he still has three brothers and three sisters living in Flatbush. They failed to recognize him on his return and he was finally identified by an old blacksmith, about whose forge he used to play when a boy. Werner is now a wealthy ranch owner and lives with his wife and children near Abe, Oklahoma. When he reached Brooklyn Werner discovered that there is a small fortune awaiting him which was left him by an uncle in Germany. He has been declared legally dead, but will take steps to have himself declared legally alive again. Werner ran away from home when he was fourteen years of age, having become enamoured with the west from seeing a wild west show in Brooklyn.

Elwood, Ind., Dec. 11.—There is a movement on foot here to reopen the McCloy Glass factory, located just over the Tipton county line. The plant is in good condition, the pots are full of glass, and when in operation it employed 270 men and boys. It is a hand blowing plant and has been closed for several years.

FEARFUL RACE WAR RAGING IN ALABAMA

Whites Discover Blacks Had Plotted to Wipe Them Out and Awful Reprisals are Taken.

NEGROES CREMATED IN LODGE ROOMS

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 11.—A special to the News-Scimetar from Columbus, Miss., says twenty-five or thirty negroes are dead; five whites and many negroes are wounded; and five negro lodge rooms have been burned in a fierce race war which is in progress in Pickens county, Ala., adjoining Mississippi.

Owing to the discovery of a plot by negroes to rise against the whites of the county every black is in danger. This plot was carried on by means of a secret society which had lodge rooms in remote districts of Pickens county.

Fifteen negroes were burned to death in a lodge room near Reform, Ala., last night, when whites attacked the place and finding a number of repeating rifles and shot guns fired the building. The blacks were penned in by the continual shooting of the whites and those who were not killed in attempting to escape were roasted alive.

Near Gordo, three negroes were shot to death when a posse of white men attacked a lodge room. So far as has been learned the burning of the other lodge rooms was without fatalities.

Word received from the affected district is conflicting owing to the poor means of communication.

The trouble started Monday with the arrest of Tom Lowe, a negro, on a charge of stealing cotton from Whig Lowe, a white planter, who is also a deputy sheriff.

When relatives and other negroes approached the officer who had him, shooting became promiscuous and the negro was killed and Lowe was hurt. Sixteen negroes are in jail in the west part of Pickens county, charged with participating in the excitement.

RAID LODGE ROOM; FIND GUNS.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 11.—The white men of Pickens county, in the vicinity of Gordo, hearing reports that negroes were preparing for an attack, raided a lodge room and secured thirteen Winchester shot guns, which were loaded with buckshot. Three hundred shells were confiscated with the shot guns and every trace of a weapon was taken in charge. The leader of the gang of negroes said to be getting ready for a riot, was reported to have boarded a train for Birmingham and efforts have been made to have him stopped and placed under arrest.

Nobody was killed.

QUARRELS WITH HIS BRIDE AND ENDS HIS LIFE

Two-Months Bridegroom in New York Drops Down a Dumb Waiter Shaft.

New York, Dec. 11.—Because he and his wife of two months quarreled over his desire to spend his evenings at his bowling club, Jacob Victor killed himself last night. When his wife cried over his desire to spend the evening away from her, Victor, saying that if she was tired of married life, so was he, rushed from the room. She followed him up five flights of stairs, where he threw open the door of a dumb waiter and jumped in. He kicked himself free from his wife and plunged to the bottom of the shaft and was instantly killed.

WINDY CITY LOOKS GOOD TO PARTY'S COMMITTEE

Democratic Organization Meets to Pick a Convention Town.

Washington, Dec. 11.—All the preliminary preparations for the meeting of the democratic national convention committee, which will be held at the Arlington hotel tomorrow, have been completed and it is now believed that it will be possible for the committee to complete its work of selecting a time and place for holding the convention before adjourning tomorrow's session.

The democratic committee has an advantage over the republican committee in that it is not necessary for it to select a chairman, as Mr. Tag-

MEMBERS WILL OUST SEIDEL UNLESS HE QUITS

Movement on to Expel Him and Appoint George H. Loesch.

Unless Otto Seidel resigns as city councilman from the Third ward he will be expelled from the body by his colleagues, who started a movement this morning that will probably eventuate in the appointment of George H. Loesch after the present incumbent has been disposed of.

President W. C. Schwier and Members J. M. Henry and W. A. Bayer are the prime movers in the matter and they will find little difficulty in securing the consent of the necessary two-thirds of the membership to take the action, as the whole organization would be pleased to see a man in the seat who would represent the ward in the able manner that Mr. Loesch is capable of.

There was some opposition in republican circles to the resignation of Seidel for fear that the majority of the assembly would select a democrat in his place, but this is not contemplated and when Seidel is out of the way a republican will be named and Mr. Loesch apparently satisfies all of the interests.

The acts of the legislature of 1905 as they relate to cities and towns give the common council the right to expel by a two-thirds vote any member of the body who violates any of the rules laid down for its government and the act of appearing on the floor under the influence of liquor and calling a fellow member a liar is looked upon as a sufficient cause for expulsion.

Mayor Hosey had not received the resignation of Seidel this afternoon, but it is highly probable it will be tendered to him as he can hardly believe that his disgraceful conduct of last night will be overlooked or that the councilmen will again sit with him. Failing in the endeavor to expel him there is ample evidence for impeachment and this will be resorted to for the men who have been annoyed by him in their meetings are determined that his horseplay and boorish behavior will not be permitted to retard or interrupt public business.

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE WILL MEET JAN. 16

On That Date New Organization Will be Effected at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 11.—The republican state committee met today. Although all the district committeemen were not present all the districts were represented, and during the short time it was in session the committee transacted considerable business.

The feeling with the committee members was that the next meeting of the committee, or rather the meeting of the new committee, for the old one practically went out of business today, should be about Jan. 16, when the reorganization takes place. The Republican Editorial association will meet in this city on that date.

The meeting began this afternoon at 1 o'clock. There was considerable discussion as to the propriety of holding a love feast. The committee then decided that precinct committeemen will be chosen Jan. 10 and 11, the county committees will be organized Jan. 13, the first convention will be held Jan. 14 and the reorganization of the state committee will take place at Indianapolis Jan. 16, the day when the Republican Editorial association will meet. The places for holding the district conventions will be chosen by the districts.

ESCAPED CONVICT FROM JACKSON PRISON IS CAPTURED

Had Been Twice in the Hands of Police Since He Came to City.

Fleming Postel, known under half a dozen names, was arrested here this morning by Detective Lenz and will be taken back to state's prison at Jackson, Mich., to serve six years more of a term that he escaped from when he took leave of the institution without the knowledge of the authorities.

He was arrested here only a short time ago on suspicion and let go. He had registered at the Hayes hotel under the name of J. W. Davis and some articles were stolen from one of the rooms and he was suspected of having taken them. He proved himself innocent, but had a revolver when he was picked up and was arraigned on this charge. The weapon was ordered destroyed, but he was allowed to go.

Last summer he was convicted of assault and battery under the name of Fred Luther for licking a small boy that lived in a house at which he boarded. The place was located on St. Mary's avenue and the lad was a son of the landlady and was beaten because he had gone swimming. Postel is also known as John Lavine and got twelve years for incest. A reward of $50 was offered for his capture.

SALOON MEN IN SESSION.

Said to Be Ready to Renew Proposition to Close Sunday Mornings.

The local association of saloon keepers is in session today considering, it is said, a propositic to renew negotiations looking toward a tacit agreement to close their places tight every Sunday morning. This can not be confirmed and is based on rumors. The association was given to understand at one time that this might be considered but it is not certain that it will be at this time.

A proposition was made before any of the cases were tried that the association would pay fifty fines without fighting if the remaining cases were allowed to go by default. This was rejected because it was not accompanied by a promise to close up on Sunday and at 11 o'clock every night. The conviction of A. B. Jackson and the affixing of a jail sentence has gotten the association to guessing.

INDIANAPOLIS MAN ENDS LIFE.

WHY FISH LEFT HOME; LEARNS PLOT TO BOTTLE HIM

Former President of Illinois Central Outwits His Enemies.

New York, Dec. 11.—Stuyvesant Fish's sudden departure for Chicago last night was due to his discovery of a plot to hold him in New York until after the election of directors of the Illinois Central railroad, which takes place Dec. 18 in Chicago.

According to this story, Mr. Fish discovered that a process server was looking for him with a subpoena to appear as a witness in a case now on trial at White Plains. This case, it is stated will require several weeks to try and attendance there would prevent Mr. Fish going to Chicago, and voting the many proxies which are in his name and which he must vote personally.

The fact that the subpoena had been issued, the story says, became known by accident to one of Mr. Fish's friends who at once telephoned him. Thereupon Mr. Fish and his secretary were rushed to Jersey City ferry and caught a train to Chicago. It is said they went without baggage. It had been announced that Mr. Fish would not go to Chicago until a day or two before the meeting.

WANT ORDER CONSTRUED.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Attorneys for Stuyvesant Fish appeared today before Judge Ball, in the supreme court and asked for a construction of the order issued on October 15th. This was granted on the prayer of Mr. Fish and restrained 281,231 shares of Illinois Central stock from being counted at the annual election in any vote where they should prove decisive in the talk ink of any vote throughout the meeting.

Henry W. Leman, counsel for Mr. Fish, asked that the order be construed for the benefit of all concerned. He intimated that this action was necessary because of an alleged erroneous belief on the part of defendants, the Harriman faction, that the election December 18th no longer hangs on the injunctional proceedings. Mr. Leman said that he desired to

The bondsmen of the saloon man are also made defendants.

New reciprocal switching arrangements between the Wabash and the Chicago and Erie railroad at Huntington went into effect Tuesday. SEIDEL GETS PUNCH FOR HIS ASININE CONDUCT

Third Ward Member is Fired From Chamber and Thrashed.

For the second time during his incumbency as a member of the city council Otto Seidel, republican representative from the Third ward, was escorted last night from the floor by the sergeant-at-arms and his disgrace was more marked last night than on the former occasion, because he was ousted by the unanimous vote of his colleagues after he had been openly accused of being drunk.

The first time his disgusting conduct excited the wrath of President William C. Schwier, who took upon himself the responsibility of having him ejected under practically the same conditions as he brought about last night. The action of last night was followed by a fist fight brought on by applying vile names to Councilman William A. Bayer, who had accused Seidel of being drunk and who had been instrumental in having him fired.

At the adjournment of the meeting he followed a number of councilmen to the postoffice corner, where his abuse became so vile that Mr. Bayer did not feel called upon to stand any more of it so he planted a couple of punches, each one of which scored a knock down and there would in all probability have been more to record had not the members interposed.

Retarded Legislation.

The meeting was well under way and a short recess had been taken when Seidel came in. He butted into a conference, but was treated as the joke that he has always been since his election, but when the session was resumed he interrupted the business so often with his asinine arguments and puerile antics that he was called by the chair several times.

There were a number of small appropriations that are absolutely necessary to finish up the business of the year and that were known to need no investigation, but it was necessary to suspend the rules on them as well as upon a measure carrying the appropriations agreed upon to increase the salaries of police and city hall attaches. No suspension can be obtained without unanimous consent and this Mr. Seidel refused to give, although he had not heard the requests from the departments, the recommendations of the comptroller or any of the preliminary legislation.

He has consistently voted no on everything that has been brought into the council, not because he had any reason for it, but from absolute lack of enough gray matter to realize the importance of the position he holds and the members who wanted to transact the business of the city with the dignity that is becoming the trust have long been disgusted with him. He was looking for trouble as he returned after he had been fired out of the council chamber and remained in the ante room until the meeting was over.

Session of Routine Work.

The session was purely routine and was intended to close up the business of the year or get it into such shape as will make it possible to close it at the next meeting, which will be the last for 1907.

County Treasurer-elect William H. Scheiman presented his bond for the approval of the council and also filed a communication asking an increase of salary from $1,600 to $1,500. He asked to be permitted to address the council or the committee in charge of the matter. The committee on finance will report.

The United States Mortgage and Trust company asked that the interest on city bonds be paid prior to the first of the year and an appropriation of $420 was necessary to meet this. Heretofore the bonds have been sent to a local bank and paid after January 1.

C. W. Edgerton presented a warm communication about his stone fence and it will be printed in full in the proceedings. The ordinance increasing and grading the salaries of police officers was passed after it had been amended in accordance with an agreement made in the committee of the whole.

It was agreed to hold the next meeting December 26 and the following ordinances were passed under a suspension of the rules:

Appropriating $45.85 for coal for police station; appropriating $76.30 to city scales account and appropriating $200 to pay back salary of Clerk H. W. Becker, of the board of public works. An ordinance was also passed appropriating $1,000 for cleaning streets.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Henry objected to the condition of the city water and asked that the health department make some investigations. Mr. Kinder stated that the people in his ward object to the switching of cars by the Pennsylvania company during the day time on Toledo and Murray streets. The franchise was granted with the understanding that no work was to be done on these tracks until night.

REV. H. S. NICKERSON TO BE TRANSFERRED TO FAIRMOUNT

Rev. C. M. Hobbs Coming as Pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church.

Rev. Herbert S. Nickerson, for the past two years pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church in Fort Wayne, is to be transferred to the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal church at Fairmount, and Rev. C. M. Hobbs, now pastor at Roanoke, will come to Fort Wayne as pastor at St. Paul's, succeeding Rev. Mr. Nickerson. Details of the transfer have been completed by the presiding elders, Rev. C. U. Wade and Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, and only the sanction of Bishop McDowell is awaited. The change is expected to become effective January 1.

The change is brought about by the recent appointment of Rev. A. W. Greenman, of Fairmount, as missionary at Rome. It is a promotion for Rev. Mr. Nickerson, who has been extremely popular and efficient in his ministerial labors in Fort Wayne. His successor, Rev. C. M. Hobbs, has been pastor at Roanoke for almost two years, and is regarded as one of the most able of the younger members of the North Indiana conference. He has been in the ministry nine years, and prior to his location at Roanoke was pastor at Swayzee four years and at Wolf Lake three years. Mrs. Hobbs is president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at Roanoke. Rev. Josept S. Bane, of Evanston, Ill., will be the new pastor at Roanoke.

"HARD TIMES" ONLY TALK.

Acme White Lead & Color Works Rushed With Orders.

"The 'hard times' consists mostly of talk. We have never in our business history at this time of the year had so many spring orders booked as we have today, the only difference being that our customers in many instances have requested that shipments be deferred until January."

This is an extract from a letter issued by the Acme White Lead & Color Works to its representatives and branch organizations, which breathes optimism in every line. Continuing, the letter says:

"The 'panicky wave,' which started in New York about a month ago, has rolled westward, and advices from our Pacific coast agency are to the effect that it has disappeared in the Pacific ocean. They advise us to be prepared for a tidal wave of prosperity coming out of the west next year. We anticipate and are preparing for it, not only from the west, but from all parts of the country.

"If there is any trouble, it is a case of over-prosperity. The nimble penny of the people has been going the rounds so rapidly during the past prosperous years that some of the coin of the realm seems to have been lost in the shuffle, but like the bad penny of the proverb, is bound to turn up. A little breathing spell, a little time to 'size things up,' a little consistent conservatism, may be just what is needed as a brake, applied upon the rapidly revolving wheel of prosperity to steady and control its momentum. Perhaps it's a needed tonic. But don't get visions and dreams that we are drifting into 'hard times.'"

HOFFMAN GETS HEAVY FINE.

Smashed Minnie Lawson's Nose and Ran—City Court.

Henry Hoffman, who has been in trouble a number of times, was given $35 and costs and a jail sentence of sixty days in the city court today, where he was charged with assault and battery on Minnie Lawson, who lives on Calhoun street, north of the jail.

Hoffman went to the resort last night and because he was ordered out he struck the woman with his fist, fracturing her nose and Dr. Tinkham testified that it will be a year or more before she fully recovered.

Frank Murphy's case was continued until December 21 and that of James Cunningham until Jan. 11. The latter was let go on his own recognizance.

DR. GEORGE STUDER NAMED.

Dr. George W. Studer has been selected by the police pension board as examining surgeon for the organization and will look into the physical condition of applicants for membership for places on the force. He was formerly coroner's clerk while he was a student at the local medical college and finished his course after the school had been merged with Purdue university and moved to Indianapolis. He is one of the bright young members of the profession here and is well equipped for the position to which he has been appointed.

CITY BREVITIES.

The fire department made a run to the Clinton street dump last night at 6:30 o'clock, where a pile of rubbish had caught fire and theatened for a time to become dangerous. The blaze was extinguished with little trouble and no loss.

The board of trustees of the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth held its bi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the institution. Matters of no great importance were discussed, however, simply routine work being transacted.

Charles Thieme, telephone operator at the central fire station, who was struck by an automobile a few weeks ago and has since been confined to the hospital, was out yesterday on crutches for the first time, and made a visit to the fire headquarters.

This morning we added to our neckwear stock 50 dozen fine French four-in-hands that we will sell at 50c.

COL. FOSTER COULD NOT BE INDUCED TO ACCEPT IT

Not a aCndidate for Governor and His Only Ambition is Local.

Col. D. N. Foster, of this city, has no ambition to be governor of Indiana, and he declares that the only public position that appeals to him is one he now holds as a member of the board of city park commissioners of Fort Wayne, in which he hopes to be instrumental, without the incentive of salary or other emoluments, in enlarging and beautifying the public park system of the city.

The Sentinel a few days ago mentioned the fact that some of Col. Foster's friends at Indianapolis were giving him favorable mention in connection with the candidacy for governor of Indiana. Col. Foster, who returned from Washington last evening, said to The Sentinel this morning:

"I could not be induced to accept a nomination for governor of Indiana, even though it should come to me unsought and without a struggle. In thus declaring I must not be understood as lacking in appreciation of the great responsibilities and high honor that attaches to the position of governor of our great commonwealth. To conscientiously fill that position is worthy of the ambition of any citizen of the state, no matter how eminent may be his ability and his accomplishments. Neither would I desire to be understood as lightly appreciating the esteem and the partiality of friends who, unsolicited, have mentioned my name in connection with this nomination and have assured me of their warm support.

"The position of governor of Indiana is an exceedingly strenuous one. It requires the strength and vitality of youth or middle life to fill it. Even then, these have not been sufficient in the past to enable the men who have filled this high position to successfully withstand the tremendous physical demands made upon them in the discharge of the multitudinous duties that attach to the office, as is shown by the fact that Indiana has but one living ex-governor. I have reached a time in life when I am entitled to husband my strength and take life a little less strenuously and enjoy the peace and quiet of my home and friends, and the turmoils and exacting duties of political life do not harmonize with any of these.

"Speaking locally, I am content, and I am desirous to continue to hold the position of a member of the board of park commissioners of the city of Fort Wayne until I can help to secure for it a magnificent system of public parks, creditable to and commensurate with the needs of the splendid city of 250,000 population that before the close of the present century will mark the site of the old fort of a hundred years ago. This position is to a measure within the scope of my strength and any ability I may have, has no salary or other emoluments connected with it, gives promise of enabling me to accomplish something practical and lasting for the public good and is the only office I would be willing to accept or to continue to fill."

On Saturday afternoon and evening the women of the Westminster Presbyterian church will hold their annual sale and supper in the church parlors. Booths have been arranged for the sale of all kinds of fancy work and from 5 to 7:30 o'clock a turkey supper will be served.

NURSE HELD PRISONER TWELVE DAYS ON A PLANTATION

Young Woman Rescued From Slavery, Tells How She Was Duped.

Ashbury Park, N. J., Dec. 11.—Weakened and unnerved by the terrible experiences she had undergone in a log cabin in the wilds of North Carolina, Miss Olga Sjustedt, a trained nurse, who had been held a prisoner twelve days on the plantation of T. E. Pender, returned to Ashbury Park yesterday, accompanied by Thomas Broderick, a police officer of this city, who was sent to her aid by local officials at the solicitation of the nurse's friends, to whom she had applied for aid.

Miss Sjostedt, who is a Swede, is now resting at the home of her friend, Mrs. Henry Lange. According to her statement she is the fifty-second woman that has been secured under false pretenses and held prisoner by Pender with vicious intentions. Her rescue by Broderick and the North Carolina officers was effected after the former had battered down the door of the shack, which was unfit for human habitation.

Planter Storms, Then Subsides.

Miss Sjostedt had been locked in her room by Pender, who was absent from his plantation at the time. The plantation is ten miles from Halifax, N. C., and consists of 1,200 acres. Three hundred negroes are employed on the place. Pender arrived soon after the officers had rescued the woman. He stormed at the officers, but when the latter displayed their revolvers he subsided and permitted the girl to depart with her rescuers. Before leaving Pender retuned $10 he had taken fom her and gave her $2.50 for her wages. When the rescuing party arrived at Halifax and told their story the citizens were greatly incensed against the planter.

"I could easily have raised a posse in Halifx to go out and lynch the man," Broderick said today in telling of the rescue, "but I was in a hurry to return to Ashbury Park, and we left after the county officials assured me they would see to it that Pender was punished as he deserves."

Will Prosecute Captor.

Miss Sjostedt said last night she would prosecute the planter to the full extent of the law. According to the nurse's story she went to North Carolina, believing she was to preside as housekeeper over an antebellum mansion. She secured the position by advertising in a New York newspaper. She reached the plantation the day before Thanksgiving. Instead of the pictured mansion she was ushered into a two room shack, which formerly was a liquor saloon and which was filthy. The windows of the rooms were barred. In searching her room she found a bundle of rags, beneath which was the body of a negress. Complaining to her employer, he replied:

"O, that was my last housekeeper. I will have her buried tomorrow."

This was the only promise he fulfilled during Miss Sjostedt's enforced sojourn.

Smuggles Letters to Friends.

Pender made improper advances to the nurse. She repulsed him and seizing her hatpin drove him from the room, after which he bolted the door from the outside. She was locked in her room every time he left, and she was most of the time a veritable prisoner. At night she wrote letters to her friends in Ashbury Park and succeeded in mailing them at the rural free delivery box when her inhuman employer was eating or in his room smoking. Letters from her friends were intercepted by Pender and destroyed.

Miss Sjostedt was forced to get up at 5 o'clock in the morning, milk the cow, feed the pigs and chickens, and clean three horses. Her Thanksgiving dinner consisted of corn bread and salt pork cooked in old tomato cans. She threatened to leave Thanksgiving day, but Pender insisted she would have to stay for three months. Night after night he attempted to force his attentions upon her, but each time she repulsed him with her only weapon, hatpins. Learning the officials were coming to take her away, Pender forced her to sign a paper saying she had not been ill treated.

The Patterson-Fletcher Co. expect to give away over 1,000 $10 books before Christmas. Read their great offer on page five.

NOBEL PRIZE GIVEN KIPLING.

Awards Made at Stockholm to Author and Scientists.

Stockholm, Dec. 11.—Ceremonies attending the distribution of the Nobel prizes, apart from the peace prize, which was awarded at Christiania, took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the building of the Academy of Sciences. Owing to the death of King Oscar there was no public function and the customary banquet in the evening was omitted.

The prize for literature was awarded to Rudyard Kipling; that of physics to Prof. Albert A. Michelson, of the University of Chicago; that of medicine to Dr. Laveran, of Paris, and the chemistry prize to Prof. Edouard Buchner, of the University of Berlin. All the recipients were present.

In addition to the prizes, which this year amount to $38,000, each recipient will be given a diploma and a gold medal.

The peace prize is to be equally divided between Ernesto Theodoro Moneta, of Italy, and Louis Renault, of France. This announcement was made today by J. G. Loevland, the Norwegian premier, at the meeting of the Nobel institute in Christiania.

The premier eulogized King Oscar, of Sweden, who, he said, had been prominent among the kingly peacemakers of the world.

M. Renault is the permanent delegate of France to The Hague tribunal and represented his country at the second peace conference last summer. M. Moneta has been prominent as a worker for peace in Italy. He was elected president of the fifteenth universal peace conference at Milan in September, 1906.

What The Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Gen. Tom Thumb and wife are at the Aveline.

C. B. Woodworth, the enterprising druggist, has electric light in his establishment.

The Eel River postoffice in this county was discontinued Saturday. The mail will in future go to Churubusco.

This afternoon Messrs. Eyanside & Wilson purchased of Mrs. Mary J. Foster the newspaper property known as the Daily and Weekly Journal. The price was $2,500, $1,000 being cash and the balance provided for on personal security.

Adam Forepaugh, the great circus man, and his press agent, C. H. Day, are at the Aveline. Mr. Forepaugh comes to contest in person the suit for damages brought against him by the negro girl, M'lle. Christine, commonly styled the "Two-Headed Nightingale." She traveled with Batchellor & Doris last season and Forepaugh's circus literature called her a "monstrosity," hence the suit. Judge Hench was counsel for Mr. Forepaugh, but on account of his elevation to the bench, Coombs, Bell & Morris will appear for the circus man. Robertson & Harper are counsel for the plaintiff.

The Sentinel contained an article reprinted from the Fort Wayne People's Press of August 23, 1852, regarding the meeting of the Agricultural Society of Allen County, held at the court house on Saturday, Aug. 16, 1852, with Hon. Mr. Bryan gives it as his opinion that Mr. Roosevelt "about half" wants to run again. A contest between a pair of third timers would be as interesting as it would be unique.

Democratic National Chairman Taggart says the location of the next national convention is largely a matter of cash guarantee. Bound to break up this vicious hoarding habit some how or other.

It is time Northern Indiana furnished the state with a governor and Northern Indiana in the person of Hon. Thomas R. Marshall will offer the people of Indiana a man who as governor will take rank with the best of them who have held down the big chair at Indianapolis.

President Roosevelt continues more or less busy heading off that third term movement among federal officeholders. Hard thing to stop. A good many of the federal officeholders are enthusiastic believers in a third term not only for the president but for others who might be but should not be mentioned.

The real soundness of the general financial situation is well illustrated by the resumption of a number of small banks in Missouri and Kansas that were forced to suspend for a time as a result of the Bank of Commerce suspension in Kansas City. Even that big concern is expected to be put on its feet shortly and its doors swung open to business. The financial flurry has been more a state of public mind than an actual financial condition, as is shown in a great variety of ways.

A few convictions in the saloon cases with penalties similar to the one inflicted by the jury in one completed trial will go a long way to convince Fort Wayne drink dispensers that the peace and dignity of the state of Indiana is not a thing to be eternally monkey with. The majesty of the law has been rather small potatoes in this precise section of the state a good while and if the law conceives it time to vindicate itself it is up to the other fellow to look out.

The first bill providing for the initiative and referendum in the United States has been introduced in the house by Representative Fulton, of Oklahoma, who is a democrat, in spite of the fact that he is the brother of Senator Fulton, of Oregon, a republican. The bill is apparently modelled after the much commented upon provision of a similar character incorporated in Oklahoma's constitution. If Mr. Fulton has his way, eight per cent of voters of fifteen states will have the power to propose legislation, and ten per cent of the same number may propose an amendment to the constitution. This referendum is provided for where five per cent of the voters of fifteen states ask for it. Another unique feature of this bill is that it provides for the submission of political questions to the people on the election ballots.

Hard as affected interests may try, there is little prospect of any serious modification of the pure food law at this session of congress, although there has been some consultation among members upon the subject. A review of the conditions existing at present in congress has convinced the people who are desirous of getting some relief from the rulings of the department of agriculture that the situation is less favorable for congressional intervention than they had supposed. Congress was unfriendly to the food law at the start, but the act has taken well with the people and many of the representatives would never venture to cast a vote against anything that was openly in defiance of food law principles. There are many that would be glad to do anything they could to weaken the strength of the enactment, but what is to be done must be effected privately. This at once makes it hard to secure any positive legislation. It implies that what is to be done must be accomplished through the medium of amendments to the agricultural appropriation bill. These, on the other hand, must be carefully worded and cleverly introduced so as to seem germane to the issues involved and not to fall under the prohibitions against new legislation in an appropriation measure. There is a general disposition among the members who have had to do with food legislation in the past to refer the present complainants to the house and senate committees on agriculture on the ground that the issues which are open between the food manufacturers and the department of agriculture are issues of fact very largely, and as such should be dealt with by the courts, or if relief is wanted through legislation they say it should be granted by provisions in the appropriation bill requiring the performance of new experiments or the addition of new machinery in the department through which the producers will get the protection they seek.

Senator T. C. Platt has introduced in the senate a bill which provides for national supervision over corporations, and for a revenue from this source to the national government, and also aims to create a class of securities which may be easily deposited with the government as a basis of circulation. A branch of the treasury department is created to be known as the bureau of incorporations, under which is to be placed supervision of the charters of corporations doing business in two or more states, with a capital of $100,000 or more. This capital must exist in excess of bonds or floating indebtedness. Power is granted to examine the books of corporations and to take possession when concerns become bankrupt. The word "national" is prohibited in connection with corporations unless they are organized under the act, and corporations shall not be subject to state, county or municipal taxes when so organized.

Appendicitis

How to Avoid It and Escape a Surgical Operation, Told By One Who Knows.

A Simple Method That Is Always Efficacious.

It has only been a few years since it was discovered that a surgical operation would cure appendicitis; in fact, it has been but a short time since the disease was discovered and named.

Whenever there is an inflamed condition of the appendix, caused by impacted faeces in the small cavity opening into the intestine, you then have appendicitis.

The older doctors used to call this inflammation of the bowels, and were puzzled to know the cause.

Even now, with all the knowledge we have of the disease, no medical man can tell you why we should have an appendix, why we find it, where it is, or what are its functions, if it has any.

The disease for which the operation is a cure is usually caused by indigestion, and in many cases follows a large and indigestible meal.

Physicians have until recently recommended an operation, but now, as it is known that it is caused by indigestion, or dyspepsia, a cure without an operation is assured.

Where the patient is treated with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the unhealthy conditions prevailing rapidly disappear, the stomach and intestines are placed back in their normal condition, every organ of the body operates as it should, and the inflammation is reduced and the operation is avoided.

Conscientious physicians, who are looking after the best interests of their patients, will always keep a supply of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets handy in their office, where in cases of sudden attacks of indigestion they can relieve the patient at once.

There is no record of a case of appendicitis where the stomach and bowels were in a healthy condition and properly digested the food from meal to meal.

No better advice can be given to any one who has attacks of indigestion, or who has been threatened with appendicitis, than to tell him to go to the drug store, pay 50 cents, and take home a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Whenever heartburn, gas in stomach or bowels, heart disease or stomach troubles, sour eructions, acidity or fermentation are present, act at once. Take a dose of the Tablets and get relief as soon as possible.

At all druggists—50 cents.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Indian-Tapioca Pudding—Two new recipes, by Fannie Merritt Farmer, follow. hot puddings proving a very acceptable dessert in cold weather. Indian tapioca is more delicate that those baked in our grandmothers' day, while it is hard to find one made of less expensive materials, yet thoroughly appetizing and wholesome. Soak five tablespoons of pearl tapioca in cold water to cover for two hours. Pour four cups of scalded milk over four tablespoons of indian meal mixed with three-fourths cup of molasses, one and one-half teaspoons of salt, and cook in a double boiler twenty minutes, stirring occasionally. Drain the tapioca and add, with three tablespoons of butter. Turn into a buttered dish, pour over one cup of cold milk, but do not stir. Bake in a slow oven one hour and fifteen minutes and serve hot. (Thin cream or plain butter are an addition, but are omitted here. Remember, if you please, to use the pearl tapioca.)

Fruit Pudding with Apricot Sauce—A decided novelty in a hot bread pudding. Butter a charlotte russe mold generously and sprinkle the bottom and sides with blanched and chopped almonds. Cut bread lengthwise of the loaf in three-fourth-inch slices, and cut two slices of correct size to exactly fill the mold. Beat the yolks of three eggs slightly and add one-half cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one teaspoonful of vanilla and one cup of milk. Soak the bread in the mixture and fit one piece in the mold. Cover with halves of cooked dried apricots, fit in the other piece of bread and pour over the remaining mixture. Put the mold in a pan of hot water, cover with buttered paper, and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Remove from oven and allow to stand ten minutes before turning on a hot serving dish. Serve with

Apricot Sauce—Rub stewed dried apricots through a sieve, and to each cup add a teaspoon of lemon juice, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, and (if liked), one or more tablespoons of sugar. Canned apricots or peaches may be used instead, but, of course, are more expensive. (The Indian pudding may be served cold for next day's luncheon, and the other one, made of stale bread, is a good way to utilize it, making an economical yet attractive dish.)

Note—If a recipe calls for sour milk and you have none gradually add fresh lemon juice to sweet milk until it thickens, then add the soda according to directions.

Unless you wish fine powdered cheese, do not take time to grate it. Run through the meat-chopper, which will cut fine very dry, hard cheese.

When a head of lettuce has the leaves so tightly curled that it seems impossible to detach them without tearing, immerse them in cold water, quickly shaking them about, and it will unfold. After washing wrap the leaves in a moist napkin and lay on the ice for half an hour. They will become crisp even if they are wilted.

The next time it is necessary to drive screws rub a little soap on the tip of each one and see how much more easily they go in. (Boston Cooking School Magazine.)

This is the store foit it; you'll find us prepared to show you the right things for any man's Christmas.

How about an Overcoat, $5.00 to $50.00, or a Suit or Raincoat, $10.00 to $40.00.

You'll find a great wealth of lesser things in our store; things men and boys want, need, constantly buy for themselves. Fine Neckwear, Cuff and Shirt Studs, Scarf Pins, Gloves, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Smoking Jackets, Bath Robes, Fine Hats, Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Umbrellas, Etc., Etc.

OUR PART

SAYS GREAT CANAL IS MERELY MATTER OF TIME

Col. D. N. Foster to Talk of Waterways Congress to Commercial Club.

Thoroughly convinced that the construction of the projected Lake Erie-Lake Michigan canal, by way of Fort Wayne, is merely a matter of time, Col. D. N. Foster returned Tuesday evening from Washington, where as one of the delegates from Indiana he attended the national rivers and harbors congress. He was accompanied by Mrs. Foster, who, together with the wives of many of the other delegates, attended almost every session of the convention and manifested a deep interest in the waterways movement.

Col. Foster has consented to talk on the congress and its work before the meeting of the Commercial club tomorrow evening. Discussing the sessions this morning, Col. Foster declared it altogether the finest and most representative body of men from every section of the country he had ever seen. More than two thousand were in attendance, and Congressman Foster and Congressman Gilhams, of the Indiana delegation in congress, manifested a lively interest in its work. The great result accomplished in the opinion of Col. Foster, was the convincing of members of the national congress that the waterways movement is one which the people will insist upon have taken up on a large scale.

The congress, of course, was called for the consideration of a policy and not a project, and there was no reference to individual canal propositions save as they were stragetically injected into the meeting by speakers "by way of illustration." This was the case with the Toledo-Chicago canal by way of Fort Wayne, and Col. Foster says he is convinced that this is one of the projects that is big enough to claim favorable attention of the country when some of the larger enterprises are out of the way.

TAYLOR BUILDING FENCES.

Candidate for Governor Begins Canvass of Purdue and Tenth District.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 11.—William L. Taylor, of Indianapolis, candidate for Governor, was in Lafayette yesterday in the interest of his campaign. He will be in the city several days while he is making his canvass of the Tenth district. Yesterday afternoon he visited Purdue university and the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, of which he and James E. Watson both are members. Mr. Watson has already made his canvass of this county and the students, but Mr. Taylor says that he does not feel in the least handicapped on that account.

GODSPEED TO EVANS.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 11.—The common council of the city of Detroit last night adopted resolutions to be sent to Rear Admiral Evans, wishing him Godspeed on the expedition to the Pacific which is to begin Dec. 16th and directing the raising of the flags on the Detroit city hall on that date.

WINDY CITY LOOKS GOOD TO PARTY'S COMMITTEE.

gart, who is now chairman, will continue to hold the position at least until after the convention.

A number of the members of the committee already have arrived and there is every prospect that there will be a full attendance when the committee is called to order.

Fight for Meeting Place.

The only contest will be over the place of meeting and the present indications are that it will be a pretty fight, though it probably will not involve the same questions that engaged the attention of the republican committee. So far there has been no active canvass among delegates who are here in the interest of any city except Denver. The delegation which came to Washington in the hope of securing the republican convention for the Colorado city has remained over and its members are urging upon the democratic committeemen the advantages of the Colorado climate. The delegation has been strengthened by the addition of C. F. Wilson, who holds the proxy of the Colorado member of the committee and who is devoting all of his energies to securing the convention for the centennial state. Denver is making the same offer of $100,000 as a bonus that was made to the republican committee.

Impress Many of Committee.

Many of the committeemen seem favorably impressed by this offer and the only point urged against Denver is its distance from the center of population. It is expected that Louisville, Ky., and Cleveland, O., will be active candidates for the honor of entertaining the convention and some of the members express the hope that Chicago will extend a substantial invitation to go to that city. So far Chicago occupies apparently the same attitude towards the democratic convention that it did towards the republican and some of the members believe that the Lake city will make the same proposition that it made to the republican committee, which was to furnish a hall and pay all the expenses of the convention. In that event it will secure the vote of many committeemen. Kansas City has decided not to extend an invitation and the same is true of St. Louis.

Claims of This City.

National Chairman Taggart, accompanied by Committeemen Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio; Roger Sullivan, of Illinois; Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, and other prominent members of the committee, arrived today, but contrary to expectations their arrival failed to crystalize thought on any one place for the holding of the convention. Mr. Taggart stated that in addition to Denver, Cleveland, Louisville and Chicago, St. Paul and Cincinnati had been mentioned. Neither Chicago, Cleveland nor Louisville is being pressed as intently as it is expected they will be later. Mr. Woodson says there is no doubt that Louisville will make an earnest effort to secure the convention as soon as the delegation from that city arrives, but he was not prepared to say just what offer would be made. Chicago and Cleveland are both favorites with a great many delegates, but neither has yet raised a large fund and both may fail on that account. Mr. Johnson says that Cleveland would be delighted to have the convention and he thinks the necessary amount of money can be obtained, but he doubts whether hotel facilities are entirely sufficient. Chicago has subscribed about $25,000 and Mr. Sullivan thinks that in addition to that sum the city will supply a hall free of rent. Norman Mack, the New York member of the committee, was present when Mr. Sullivan was discussing the probabilities and he said: "If you are not careful, Sullivan, you will get it." Sullivan replied that he was anxious to have the convention, but he was not quite satisfied with the offer he would be able to make.

"If the Denver people lay down that $100,000 in gold in the committee meeting we will see that they never get away with it, whether they get the convention or not," said Mr. Woodson. Louisville will wait and see what she has to meet before making her proposition. As to the date of holding the convention, the concensus of opinion seems to be favorable to a postponement until after the meeting of the republican convention.

give the defendants ample time to bring before the court the question of their right to vote all stock standing in their name.

In his request as filed in court, counsel for Mr. Fish declares that up to the present time neither of the main defendants, the Union Pacific Railroad company, the Railroads Securities company nor any of the alleged substituted persons in whose names it is charged the stock owned by these companies stands, have made any motion to dissolve the motion or take any steps which put at issue their right to vote the stock.

It is held that the defendants are claiming that the court order of October 15th is still operative over the meeting of December 18th and must be supplied to the proceedings of that meeting so that the defendants are entitled, at such meeting provisionally, to vote the enjoined stock, and if such provisional voting of such stock given a majority for any motion or resolution, then that motion or resolution shall not be of avail and the meeting must be adjourned. Mr. Fish and his attorneys claim that the modifying order does not apply to the meeting of December 18th and that the enjoined stock can not be voted until the court dissolves the injunction.

THIEVES LOOT DENTAL OFFICE.

Carry Away Entire Stock of Fillings, Plates and Other Materials.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 11.—Williams Bros., dentists of this city, found yesterday that thieves had entered their dental parlors during the night and taken their entire stock of dental material. Gold fillings, plates and sets of false teeth worth $300 were taken, and the only part of the stock left were some few discarded teeth thrown on the floor. The robbers locked the doors when they took their departure and the police have no clew to work upon.

AUTOMOBILE WAS RETURNED.

An automobile taken from in front of the office of B. A. Tuttle, on Clinton street, last night, was returned today to the Randall garage. It was found out on Fox avenue and returned this morning and had probably been taken by some one who wanted a little ride. The police had been looking for it.

MAGNATES OF AMERICAN LEAGUE MEETING IN CHICAGO

Important Business Up for Consideration by the Ball Bosses.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 11.—Representatives of the baseball clubs of the American League put their heads together in annual meeting here this afternoon, each one alert for some dicker that will add to the efficiency of his own particular aggregation. Rumors of all sorts of trades are in the air, notwithstanding the tradition that few important transfers have been known to take place at the annual conference. In expectation of some such reorganization, nevertheless, quite a number of minor leaguers are hovering near, hoping to be able to pick up some players.

One result that is quite likely to follow today's conference is the wiping out of the last difference between the two major leagues, the question of a date for opening the season. Formerly the National League has acted arbitrarily on that subject and the American League has naturally arranged its schedule accordingly. Yesterday, however, President Ban Johnson of the American organization, received a telegram from President Pulliam, stating that the National League would appoint two men to work in conformity with a similar committee from the other body on the matter of dates. By such an understanding the work of the schedule committee will be greatly simplified. It is considered probable that the opening date will be fixed by telegraphic communication between the heads of the organizations before the present meeting adjourns. It is also predicted that the opening date will not be quite so early as that of last season.

The board of directors composed of the representatives of Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit and St. Louis clubs, will hold a preliminary conference in President Johnson's office at noon, the regular meeting being called for at the Auditorium Annex.

FAR BEHIND THE RECORD AND ENDURANCE IS NEAR LIMIT

Six-Day Bike Race in New York Shows No Stunts Worth While.

New York, Dec. 11.—Although more than 130 miles behind the record made by Miller and Waller in 1899, the riders in the six-day bicycle race are feeling severely the effects of the prolonged grind. Seven of the sixteen teams which started Monday already have given way to fatigue or retired on account of injuries or illness. Just after daybreak today Samuelson and Mitten and Wilcox and Williams left the track for good. Samuelson was in fairly good condition but was forced to retire by the weakness of his teammate, Mitten. Williams was forced to retire by the injury sustained by Wilcox, his mate.

At 10 o'clock Fogler-Moran, Rutt-Stol, Georget-Dupres and Krebs-Vanderstuyft had covered 992 miles, nine laps; Logan-Bardgett, Galvin-Wiley, Downing-Downey and Vanoni-Breton had 992 miles, eight laps to their credit and the Lawson-McDonald team brought up the rear with 992 miles, seven laps. The leaders at that hour were nearly 140 miles behind the record for fifty-seven hours, made by Miller and Waller in 1899.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS TO INVESTIGATE AT GOLDFIELD

Labor Commissioner Neill and Asst. Sec. Murray to Make Inquiry.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Assistant Secretary Murray, of the department of commerce and labor, Chas P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, will leave Washington this afternoon for Goldfield, Nevada, to make a thorough investigation of the trouble between the miners and mine operators at that place. Secretary Murray and commissioner Smith made this announcement after a conference with President Roosevelt today.

FUNSTON STARTS TO SCENE.

ENDORSE GOLDFIELD STRIKE.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 11.—Official indorsement of the miners' strike at Goldfield was given yesterday by the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners. The following telegram was sent to Chas. H. Mackinnon, president of the Goldfield Miners' union: "The executive board recognizes the justice of your position. Will render all possible assistance."

COSTLY MORNING BLAZE.

Fire Destroyed Property to Extent of $1,500.

Fire of an unknown origin, at 5 o'clock this morning, destroyed the entire contents of the two back rooms in a building at 1618 Calhoun street, owned by the Himbert estate and occupied by a saloon conducted by Clem Atkins. Among the effects which were lost in the fire were a new electric piano, valued at $750, and a valuable parrot.

The two rooms to which the fire was mostly confined, were used by Mr. and Mrs. Atkins as a dining room and kitchen. The upper rooms being used as sleeping apartments for themselves and a few railroad men to whom they let.

The loss will amount to about $1,500, partially covered by insurance.

MANY MINES WILL RESUME.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 11.—A dispatch to the Miner from Helena, Mont., says that the East Helena plant of the American Smelting and Refining company announces that it will resume the buying of all custom ores. This will mean the resumption of many mines in Montana which have been closed as the result of the recent action of the smelter in refusing to accept any ore but that from contract shippers.

HOISEN IS FINED.

The charge of criminal assault against Zack Hoisen was changed to assault and battery in the city court today and he was fined $25 and costs, which he paid.

HOW HALT WAS CALLED ON THIRD TERM BOOMERS

Full Text of Letter Sent by President to Federal Officeholders.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—The Record-Herald today prints the following special from one of its staff correspondents at Washington:

The full text of President Roosevelt's letter to cabinet officers regarding third-term activity on the part of federal placeholders, written just three weeks ago today, was given out at the white house this afternoon. At the same time announcement was made that the cabinet officials had been directed to transmit the executive edict to every officeholder under the government, the formal communication from each department head embracing the presidents' letter reading as follows:

The following communication from the president is forwarded to you for your information and guidance:

The White House, Washington, Nov. 19, 1907.—I have been informed that certain office holders in your department are proposing to go to the national convention as delegates in favor of renominating me for the presidency, or are proposing to procure my indorsement for such renomination by state conventions. This must not be. I wish you to inform such officers as you may find it advisable or necessary to inform in order to carry out the spirit of this instruction that such advocacy of my renomination, or acceptance of an election as delegate for that purpose, will be regarded as a serious violation of official propriety and will be dealt with accordingly. Sincerely yours. Theodore Roosevelt.

Even greater surprise and more speculation have been developed as a result of the renewed effort to give publicity to the president's course with respect to third term boomers than were occasioned when the original announcement of his attitude toward the matter was made. Shrewd observers believe that the matter would have been allowed to rest where it stood had it not been for important developments during the last few days.

Practical open defiance of the president's order on the part of federal officials who control the republican politics of certain states, which developed strongly when the republican national committee met here on Friday and Saturday, forms one reason for the president's recalling of attention to his directions to subordinates. In direct connection with this there looms up the alignment of forces in the national committee, which was brought out at last week's meeting.

Joseph Phillips, the oldest tenant farmer on R. C. Gosling's estate at Hassobury, Farnham, Essex, has died at the age of eighty-three years. Mr. Phillips was born, lived the whole of his life and died in the same house.—London Standard.

RECOVER 215 BODIES.

Monongah, W. Va., Dec. 11.—The excitement of the first three days following the disaster in the Fairmont coal mines here, has about subsided and the situation has settled down into a steady systematic search for the bodies of the victims. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon 212 bodies had been brought to the surface and with large additions to the rescuing force it is hoped to have the mines cleared very soon.

In the caverns penetrated today conditions were found to be much better. There was an absence of gas and the deadly black damp to interfere with the searchers and the wreckage was not so great. The installation of additional fans has much improved the ventilation system. The relief work is progressing in a satisfactory manner. Half a dozen relief stations are now in operation and supplies of all kinds are coming in rapidly and being as quickly distributed. The cash contributions up to this time total $40,000.

In reply to an expression of sympathy and offer of assistance from the Cleveland chamber of commerce, Mayor Arnett wired that the relief committee figures on three hundred widows and one thousand orphans as a result of the disaster and there was no question that destitution among them would be very great.

The tragedy occurred some time Monday night, but was not discovered until last night, when the police broke into the room to discover why the two little children were standing at the window crying.

SOCIETY

The plans for holiday parties among the young folks, particularly those who are in school, are formulating rapidly. Invitations are being sent out early so no one will make the mistake of having her party during the same hours that someone else in her special clique has determined upon. There will be a number of visitors in whose honor there will be a round of entertainments.

One of the young hostesses for the season will be Miss Fayma Bradshaw, who will have as a guest at her home Miss Winona Montgomery, of Indianapolis. REMINDER OF MIDDLE AGES.

Chicago Priest Conducts Concert by Paulist Chorister Society.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—A reminder of the middle ages when music was chiefly fostered by monks and monasteries was witnessed last night at the Theodore Thomas Orchestra hall, Rev. Father Wm. J. Finn, in his Cassock, conducting the concert on the stage. Father Finn is a well known priest of the Paulist order and the occasion was a concert given by the Paulist Chorister society.

The principal music feature was "The Holy City," an oratorio by Alfred Grau. It enlisted, besides soloists, a chorus of 100 voices, a number of the Thomas Orchestra members. A large audience discriminatingly approved the work not only of the soloists and chorus, but also that of the priest.

WILL APPROVE LIPTON'S PLAN.

Brooklyn Yacht Club Will Recommend International Cup.

New York, Dec. 11.—At the annual meeting of the Brooklyn Yacht club, to be held tonight, a committee appointed for the purpose of considering the matter will recommend to the club that a cup be offered for international yacht races along the lines proposed by Sir Thomas Lipton in his recent challenge for the Americas cup, which challenge was declined by the New York Yacht club. The type of yacht advocated for this race is a "sane" type of boat, such as an ordinary yachtsman would be able to afford, and not a racing machine such as is required under the rules of the Americas Cup contest. It is proposed to issue invitations to all the principal yacht clubs in Europe to participate in the contests for the new cup.

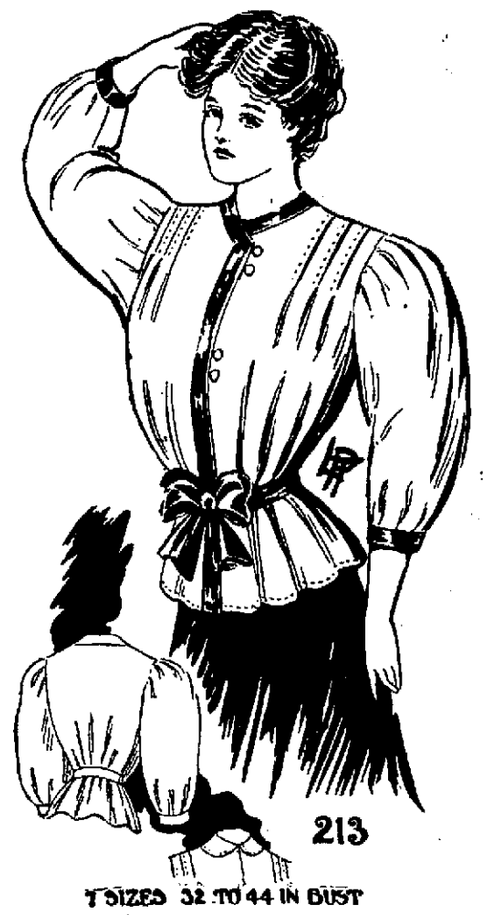
Shirt Waist Dressing Sacque

By Mrs. Jane Ford.



The pattern for this dressing sacque is cut in seven sizes, from thirty-two to forty-four inches bust measure. To make this garment for the average woman get three and three-quarters yards of material twenty-seven inches wide, or three yards thirty-six inches in width. If ribbon is used as a trimming, five and one-quarter yards will be needed.

The pattern for this waist is so designed that it will have the same effect as a shirt waist. The neck may be finished with a standing or rolling collar. The sleeves are three-quarter length.

The back is perfectly plain, held in place at the waist line by the ribbon ties. The front has three broad tucks stitched yoke depth on either side; these give the necessary fulness over the bust. If a longer sleeve than the three-quarter style is wanted, the cuff can be cut deeper, or the upper portion of the sleeve may be an inch or two longer than the pattern, and the narrow cuff used.

A negligee made like this model will be especially useful to the woman who does her own housework, for it gives a neater appearance than the average dressing sacque and is more comfortable than a loose shirtwaist.

This garment can be effectively copied in any material suitable for either a negligee or shirt waist. If it is to be worn as a working jacket, some pretty cotton material that can be frequently tubbed will give the best service. For such use gingham wears well, and a plaid or striped design would be pretty if in place of the ribbon trimming a band of plain gingham were used to bind the cuffs, collar and front.

If a warm negligee is required, veilings, challis and cashmeres in pretty design should be selected.

If dark colors are chosen, they will not readily show soil and these materials may be washed occasionally, if care is taken not to let them shrink.

These patterns are for sale by the Independent-Peerless Pattern Co., 107 West 25th street, New York City.

The Apollo Club Concert Tonight

Those present at the April concert of the Apollo club immediately perceived that a new note had been struck in Fort Wayne musical affairs that made for better things. The men sang with spirit, with precision and careful expression, the soloist was an undoubted success, the accompanist was noticeably fine, the programs were an improvement upon anything previously seen in the city and altogether the audience was necessarily impressed with the tone of the whole concert.

The club then set a standard that it means not only to equal, but tonight's concert should convince the audience that it has surpassed it. The program of songs is better and the club has more experience in their work; the soloist, Mr. Cunningham, occupies a place in the front rank of concert singers of the country; Mrs. D. F. Urbahns, his accompanist, is noted for her beautiful accompainments and even more care than before has been exerted to make the first concert of the season one to be remembered.

The programs have been printed in full on soft "unrustleable" paper and have a dash of Christmas red to mark the season. The stage will be decorated with plants and cut flowers and the club will occupy the stage during the concert, singing from a raised platform and resuming their seats after the songs. This will do away with the awkwardness of leaving the stage so frequently. There will also be a short intermission between the two parts.

The club is glad to announce that it has secured an associate membership list of over a hundred names. These members, upon payment of five dollars, received two tickets for each concert and constitute an endorsement of the ends and aims of the club's work. It is hoped that in time the entire house may be sold by subscription and no single seats sold. This will take time, but the club has determined to give the public of its best and make the Apollo club a synonym of the best concerts of the year. The following list of associate members will be printed upon the program for each concert:

Harry Achenbach, M. App, H. J. Auth, S. B. Bechtel, Coony Bayer, Richard Ball, Albert S. Bond, Wm. Bartenick, John E. Bulmahn, Wm. P. Breen, Wm. F. Borgman, F. I. Brown, A. T. Bailey, Dr. Albert E. MEMORY IMPROVED

Since Leaving Off Coffee.

Many persons suffer from poor memory who never suspect coffee has anything to do with it.

The drug—caffeine—in coffee, acts injuriously on the nerves and heart, causing imperfect circulation, too much in the brain at one time, too little in another part. This often causes a dullness which makes a good memory nearly impossible.

"I am nearly 70 years old and did not know that coffee was the cause of the stomach and heart trouble I suffered from for many years, until about four years ago," writes a Kansas woman.

"A kind neighbor induced me to quit coffee and try Postum. I had been suffering severely and was greatly reduced in flesh. After using Postum a little while I found myself improving; my heartbeats became regular and now I seldom ever notice any symptoms of my old stomach trouble at all. My nerves are steady and my memory decidedly better than while I was using coffee.

"I like the taste of Postum fully as well as coffee. My sister told me two years ago that she did not like it, but when I showed her how to make it according to directions, she thought it was delicious.

"It is best to pour cold water over your Postum, let it come to a boil, then boil fifteen minutes. That brings out the flavor and full food value."

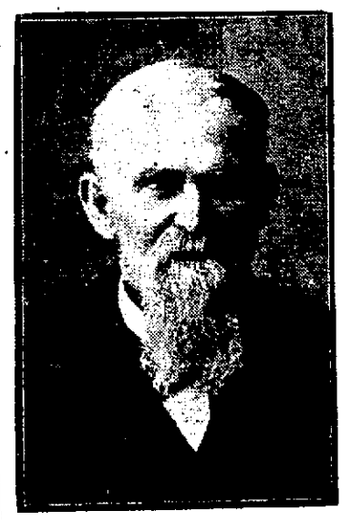
Golden Jubilee of Their Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rousseau Celebrate Their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary With Family and Friends.



A golden wedding celebration of December 10 was that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rousseau, well known and greatly respected residents of the county. Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau live three miles southwest of the city and on Tuesday they had a gathering of their children and grandchildren with a few of their many friends about them to do justice not only to the fine dinner but to honor the day itself. Mrs. Rousseau was Miss Martha Corey and she was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, and is a relative of the steel magnate of the same name. Mr. Rousseau is a native of Indiana, his birthplace being Newcastle and his birth year 1836. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau came to Allen county in early youth. They were married Dec. 10, 1857 in the old Methodist college, which stood at the west end of Wayne street, by Prof. Robinson, who was a noted instructor and preacher in the college and Methodist district at that time. The bride and groom went to their new country home on their wedding day and during the journey Mr. Rousseau shot a wild turkey which a few hours later served as a part of the wedding feast. One of the interesting features of the golden wedding day was the reminiscent account of those early pioneer days in the wild country in which Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau settled and spent their early married life. Seven children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau, of whom five are living. They are: Mrs. J. C. F. Sprankle, who lives west of the city; B. F. Rousseau, of New Haven, Conn.; Mrs. Ida Van Alstine, of Aboite township; Chauncey D. Rousseau, of Illinois, and Wilson Rousseau, who lives at home with his parents. These children with six of the thirteen living grandchildren and one great-grandchild were present at this fiftieth anniversary. Mr. Rousseau is an active worker and member of the Church of Christ and is an elder in the West Creighton Avenue church of that denomination. Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau were presented with many beautiful and useful gifts as mementoes of the day. There were about seventy-five guests present, including Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Broxon, of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sprankle and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Elson Broslus, of this city; Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Bell, of Rich Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dinius and daughter, Lenore; Mr. and Mrs. James Rousseau and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Alstine and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. Sprankle and Miss Blanche Sprankle, Miss Maxie Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bowman, Mrs. Frank Frasy, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Sprankle, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Broxon, Mrs. Rebecca Jackson, Mrs. H. B. Jackson, W. ... Corey, Wilson Goudy, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moffat, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Rousseau, Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Shamhart, the Misses Shamhart and Edson J. Shamhart.

JUGULAR VEIN WAS SEVERED

Bungling Surgical Operation Alleged to Have Killed Girl.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—After microscopic examination of the exhumed body of five-year-old Mildred Hanson, who died at Lake View hospital after a surgical operation for tubercular trouble, five physicians decided last evening that the child's jugular vein had been broken and Coroner Hoffman immediately ordered an inquest.

This outcome lends color to allegations of the girl's father, Carl Hanson, that the jugular vein was accidentally severed by the surgeon in charge while operating upon her throat.

WOODCOCK.

Woodcock may be broiled whole or filleted, may be served in croustades or as a salmi, or roasted. For broiling, pick out the eyes and skin the heads. Split through the backs without separating the parts, then season with salt and pepper, roll in olive oil and broil over a clear fire with their bills tucked in their breasts. Broil on each side for four or five minutes and serve on delicately browned slices of toast. Spread with maitre d'hotel butter and garnish with crispy slices of bacon. To roast, put a cranberry or two in each body and truss, fastening the legs close to the body. Toast as many slices of bread as you have birds. Lay a slice of toast under each bird to catch all the juices, and roast half an hour, basting frequently with butter. Serve on a hot plate, the toast under each bird, and garnish with thin slices of lemon and watercress.

Players Fear Roasts on Home Lots

Nothing hurts a ball player so much as jeers from the home bleacher. In the past there has been many a good player driven out of the business by sneering and even good natured but cutting remarks from the fans who sit in the cheap seats at every game.

On the road the players can take all kinds of joshing or even angry talk from the fans and it hardly ever effects them, but let even a lone fan get after a player in his home town and that player will begin to go down hill at once, and unless the remarks are soon stopped the player will soon be sitting on the bench or else be released from the team entirely.

How often one hears the remark: "He was in bad in such and such a town and so was traded." The remark simply signifies that the player was forced out of the town because of the enmity of one or two, or perhaps a dozen, fans who disliked him and made it a point to taunt him day after day from their secluded seats in the crowd.

Often such players never know or even see the men who are casting the slurs at them, but just the same they are always conscious of their presence and fearful at all times of making mistakes that will bring down a volume of jeers.

Jimmy Casey, third baseman of the Brooklyn club, who is slated as manager of Toronto next season, was one of the players victimized by rowdy fans. At one time Casey was one of the most popular players in the National league, being at the time a member of the Chicago club. His very name seemed sacred to lovers of baseball, and he was cheered every time he came to bat. Under such conditions Casey was a powerful man for the Chicago club, both in batting and fielding.

But in the fall of 1904 and all through the season of 1905 Casey was a failure at third base in Chicago and for no other reason than that he had picked up an enemy somewhere among Chicago's great mass of baseball fans. At first it seemed that there was only one man with a spite against Casey, but later on it appeared as if there was a dozen who took delight in hurling cutting words at the little third baseman. These fans seemed to have looked up Casey's past life, and if they could find anything that would be humiliating it would be sung out across the diamond to him during the game.

Casey's work began to slacken at once. He failed to make good with the bat, often fanning at critical times, simply because of the shots fired at him from the bleachers. In fielding around third base he became erratic and often heaved the ball wild or fumbled badly on easy grounders. His face wore a look of distress night and day, and he slipped about the streets and on the ball field as though being hunted and afraid of being caught.

The result was the trade of Casey, among other players, for Sheckard of Brooklyn, and Casey then went to the Long Island town and was once more the Casey of old. The first time he played in Chicago with the Brooklyn team he was the sensation of the game, and did all this under the very eyes of the men who had driven him from the Windy city. It didn't worry him then because he had no fear of them.

A number of other players have been removed from one town or another for the same reason. Jake Beckley was in so badly at Cincinnati that he couldn't go through a game without being roasted severely from the fans. George Rohe, the erratic sub third baseman of Comiskey's White Sox, has suffered in the same way during the past year, and only that he was such a factor in winning the world's championship for the Sox against the Cubs the fall before kept him with the Chicago club during the past season.

Frank Isbell was driven to the bench a couple of seasons ago. He couldn't hit the ball, because when he went to bat rowdy fans in the bleachers took delight in taunting him.

GIANTS STARRED IN MEN REMOVED FROM FIELD BY UMPIRES

Secretary Farrell at New York Meeting to Talk Redistricting.

New York Dec. 11.—The National League of Baseball Clubs held the first of a three day's session of their thirty-first annual meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday, says Tim Murnane in the Chicago Record-Herald.

The reading of President Pulliam's annual report and his recommendations took two hours and twenty minutes and put the magnates in a pliable condition to take a recess until today at 2 o'clock.

President Pulliam's report contained the following interesting table: Removals from the field by the umpires, 112; suspensions by the president, 17, as follows:

Clubs.	Removal.	Sus.
Boston	10	2
Brooklyn	11	4
Chicago	12	4
Cincinnati	12	1
Philadelphia	18	5
St. Louis	13	1
Pittsburg	11	0
New York	25	2

The giants were given the prize for having their men removed from the field, while Boston displayed the best discipline toward Mr. Pulliam's officials.

President Pulliam recommended that no bottle liquids be sold on ball parks and no intoxicating liquors allowed on the grand stand. This was no doubt aimed at the New York polo grounds, where there is a barroom connected with the grand stand. Mr. Pulliam further recommended that there be no more doubleheaders with the second going but seven innings. He suggested that hereafter postponed games be compulsory on the first chance the teams had for meeting.

Pulliam reported the only clubs to live up to the rules furnished the visiting clubs with proper quarters to dress were Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and St. Louis, and he further recommended that Chicago, Pittsburg, New York and Brooklyn furnish better accommodations for visiting ball teams.

The clubs were represented as follows: Boston, Dovey; New York, Brush; Philadelphia, Schettsline; Brooklyn, Ebbets; Pittsburg, Dreyfuss; Cincinnati, Herrmann; Chicago, Murphy; St. Louis, Stanley Robison.

The magnates and managers were busy talking of deals for players. Manager John McGraw offered Cincinnati Bresnahan, Dahlen and Browne for Schiel and Lobert, but Herrmann would not stand for the trade, although he was anxious to get Catcher Bresnahan. McGraw says he would consider a trade of Bresnahan for Fred Tenney, and while Boston thought well of the play, they wanted to hold off until after the Joe Kelley case was disposed of.

George Stallings declared himself in the running once more and several dope artists thought he would make a good man for Cincinnati. Joe Kelley, an ex-manager of the Cincinnati club, gave it as his opinion that John Ganzel and Huggins were not equal to the task of handling the Cincinnati club, but that George Stallings had the experience and would make the very best man now on the market.

Boston, Cincinnati and New York were the clubs anxious for trades, and yet New York was the only club willing to name what it would do, both Dovey and Herrmann fearing McGraw would not trade.

Secretary John H. Farrell of the National Association is here to get together the eastern members of the national board to discuss the trouble now in the three minor leagues of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana. The presidents of those leagues have asked the board to redistrict the territory, and the chances are that a board meeting will be called for Cleveland early in January to follow the Cincinnati meeting of January 6, where a minor league committee will meet the national commission.

President Charles Murphy made a ten-strike yesterday afternoon when he announced that he would give a banquet tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria to the magnates and newspaper men to celebrate the victory of the Chicago Cubs winning the world's championship. He promised to have Johnny Evers present as a live member of the team.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. CAPTAIN KULP PLACED ON TRIAL.

Iowan Court-Martialed on Account of McFarland Fight.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 11.—Court-martial of Captain O. W. Kulp of the Davenport company of the Iowa National guard began yesterday, Kulp defending himself against the charges of disobeying orders of Governor Cummins by not stopping the McFarland-Herman prize fight at Davenport.

Captain Kulp was not permitted, on cross examination, to show that the match was a sparring exhibition and not a prize fight, but the court may go into this later.

Judge Advocate Berkebile showed that the prize fight was advertised at Davenport for November 21; that the performance came off at the date and place named on tickets sold for the fight; that Captain Kulp took his company to the ringside and was then convinced that the exhibition would be lawful, and did not interfere, though so ordered by the governor and Adjutant General Thrift.

Captain Kulp's attorneys will try to show that when the adjutant general ordered the prize fight stopped he did not intend to prohibit a lawful sparring exhibition, and that it would be necessary to show that Kulp intended to disobey orders when he prevented a prize fight and did not interfere with a sparring exhibition.

General James Rush Lincoln is president of the court, which is made up of seven officers. It is the first court-martial ever held in Iowa.

ANTI SALOON LEAGUE TO STAND BY HANLY IN STATE

Will Not Permit Republicans to Punish Him for Columbus Speech.

Washington, Dec. 11.—S. E. Nicholson, who is here representing the National Anti-Saloon League before congress, yesterday gave out the following statement, which is of interest throughout Indiana:

"The officers of the National Anti-Saloon League have observed certain newspaper paragraphs which indicate that there is a disposition to punish Governor Hanly for going to Columbus, O., in the recent campaign and making a speech in which he advocated the election of Judge Duncan, the democratic candidate for mayor of that city.

"The National Anti-Saloon League officers have discussed the possibility of an effort to injure Governor Hanly in his standing as a party man and a public servant on account of this act, and they have decided that if the issue is raised, either in the immediate or remote future, the whole force of the Anti-Saloon League organization shall be used to back him up. It must be apparent to every one that the Anti-Saloon League organization is very powerful in Indiana and we are satisfied that if the issue is drawn we shall be able to effectively organize, not only every county, but every community in the state for the defense of Governor Hanly.

"If there is any disposition on the part of the republican organization or the partisan press of Indiana to punish Governor Hanly for his Columbus speech, we would hold forth to those who are engaged in this undertaking the admonition that they are simply fooling with fire, with the inevitable consequence that sooner or later they will get burnt. An analysis of the election in Columbus shows that it was not in any sense a partisan campaign. All of the uptown wards, and all of the whisky wards, which are democratic, went republican, showing that the issue was purely a moral one, and that Governor Hanly stood with the republicans of Columbus for clean and decent government."

LOST LOVE NOTE HIS UNDOING.

Young Farmer Lured to Police Station and Held for Robbery.

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 11.—A lost love letter and a little detective work of the Sherlock Holmes type has caused the arrest of Walter O. Nicewanner, living a short distance north of this city, on the charge of stealing valuable papers from a carriage factory of which Judge Frank Gass, grand chancellor of the Indiana Knights of Pythias, is manager.

The papers were found by a railroad employe beneath a culvert several miles north of this city. By the side of the pack was a note addressed to Miss Lela Johnson, of Eaton, and signed "W. O. N." Judge Gass, by searching the directory, found the initials to correspond to those of Nicewanner and through a ruse had him come to the police station. He was delighted when he learned that his lost note had been found. His admission that the note belonged to him caused his arrest and he is held in lieu of a $1,000 bond. He denies his guilt. Nicewanner is a well-to-do young farmer with a clear record.

TAFT MEN FOR EARLY MEETING.

Want Republican Convention in Ohio as Soon as Possible.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 11.—A. I. Vorys, manager of the Taft presidential canvass, when asked yesterday about the coming Ohio convention and primaries to select delegates said:

"I have repeatedly said that Taft's friends desire as early a convention as possible. Of course, there should be a primary election for the selection of delegates."

As to the selection of Chicago as the place for holding the national convention, Mr. Vorys said: "The fight on the place for the convention was between cities. Taft's friends were indifferent to the place and took no hand in the contest. Some of his friends on the committee voted for Chicago, some for Kansas City and some for Denver."

Chairman Brown of the republican state central committee said last night that the committee would be called to meet early in January to fix the time for the primaries and the date and place for holding the convention. Both will probably be held in February.

Chrisman died leaving an eighty-acre farm to two sets of children and a portion to the second wife. The widow entered an agreement to leave her property to the second set of children but afterward married again and sold the land. The purchaser gave a mortgage for part payment. The widow afterward obtained a divorce and the children have set up a claim for the land.

REPUBLICANS WIN THE BOSTON MAYORALTY IN ELECTION

Mayor Fitzgerald Beaten—"Dry" Forces Make Big Gains in Towns.

Boston, Dec. 11.—George A. Hibbard, the republican postmaster of Boston, was yesterday elected mayor of this city by a plurality of 2,018 over John F. Fitzgerald, the present democratic mayor. Hibbard's total vote was 38,667, that of Fitzgerald 36,054 and that of John A. Coulthurst (Independent League) 15,871.

One noteworthy feature of the election in Boston and in the seventeen other cities of the state where elections were held was the large increase in the "dry" vote. This city voted to license the sale of liquor, but by a smaller majority than in previous years, due to a hard campaign to keep saloons out of the suburbs.

Hibbard's vote is clearly less than the normal republican total of the city. The combined votes of Fitzgerald and Coulthurst is below the normal democratic total. It is known that many republicans did not vote, probably because of the charges that Hibbard was a wheel in Senator Lodge's machine in Boston.

Head Charge of Graft.

It is therefore claimed that the postmaster's election is due to the votes of democrats, who heeded the charge of graft against Fitzgerald, and also to the strength of the Independence League candidate, whose total vote is larger than most politicians thought he could get.

To the democrats the result is a great surprise. Betting was 2 to 1 on Fitzgerald Monday night. It was generally thought the result would be close, but that Fitzgerald would be the winner by a sufficient margin. Mr. Hibbard will take office January 1 for a two-year term.

The composition of the new board of aldermen will not be known before this afternoon. There were thirty-nine candidates for thirteen places, no voter being permitted to vote for more than seven, and the ballot is so badly split that it will take many hours to compile the result.

The common council will be heavily democratic.

First Defeat for Mayor.

Fitzgerald's unique political career is thought to have closed. It has long been his boast that he never lost a political contest, and it was true until yesterday. From the time he began to manipulate the voters of the Sixth ward as a youth he had been remarkably successful, and on the theory that nothing succeeds like success, he counted to win again, though this was the hardest of the many hard battles he has had to make. Essentially a machine politician, he depended on his machine to pull him through, but this has finally fallen to pieces from sheer overwork. It began to get out of gear a year ago when broken promises added largely to his enemies, and the revelations this fall of the finance commission, which has been examining into city hall affairs, turned many independents and taxpaying democrats against him.

Put Blame on Machine.

There have been graft charges without number. It is only fair to say that thus far not a dollar of graft has been traced directly to the mayor, but the charges have involved his appointees to office and his political associates until the people put the blame on the mayor's shoulders.

Rightly or wrongly, he is blamed for the increase in the city debt, with nothing to show for it, and his evident intention to seize upon all the county offices, in addition to filling every possible place in the city hall with his machine, was a powerful cause of popular disapproval.

Big Gains in "Dry" Vote.

Under the state local option law "no license" won some notable victories in the elections in the seventeen cities outside of Boston. Worcester went "no" for the first time in seventeen years, and the temperance people there burned red fire last night in their jubilation. Fall River, a typical mill town, with a heavy foreign population, went "yes" by 1,487, against 4,000 a year ago.

Woburn, a license stronghold, where the liquor interests of Boston spent much money, was kept "wet," but by a majority of only 124, and at the expense of getting out nearly 200 more "yes" votes than a year ago.

Lynn, another city which usually goes for license, gave an emphatic no license majority, the figures being "yes" 5,342, "no" 7,020; last year "no" 4,901, "yes" 3,624. This victory was directly due to the efforts of the anti-saloon league.

Comfort for Liquor Men.

Chelsea is the only city to shift from "no" to "yes." Last year it went dry after a period of open saloons, but as the city is normally wet the temperance party does not feel it has suffered a severe defeat.

Among the cities which went "no" by larger majorities than last year are Salem, Everett, Newburyport, Melrose, Beverly, Malden, Somerville and Cambridge. Lowell and Holyoke, which remain on the "yes" column, do so by greatly reduced majorities.

Newton, which is a part of Greater Boston, is the only city except Chelsea among the seventeen to show a gain for the license element. Though it remains in the "no" column, it does so by more than 800 fewer votes than last year. In Taunton, which voted a week ago, a recount yesterday reduced the "yes" majority to one.

Republicans Sweep Worcester.

On the heaviest vote ever polled at an election in Worcester the republicans swept the city, electing the mayor, James Logan, eight of eleven aldermen, including the alderman at large, and will have twenty-one republicans against nine democrats in the city council.

At Chicopee Dr. J. O. Beauchamp (rep.) was elected mayor in a four-cornered contest by a plurality of 180. Thomas F. Porter (rep.) was elected mayor of Lynn.

GRAND JURY INDICTS HERROD.

McLain's Slayer Is Held on Manslaughter Charge at Crawfordsville.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Dec. 11.—The special session of the grand jury, called to investigate the shooting of Harry McLain at the Big Four station on the night of Nov. 27, adjourned yesterday after returning an indictment against George Herrod, charging him with manslaughter. The grand jury was in session yesterday and today and the shooting was the only case investigated. Yesterday afternoon Herrod voluntarily went before the grand jury and gave his version of the shooting.

Herrod was night operator at the Big Four station on the night of the shooting, and killed McLain believing him to be a holdup man. Herrod had been held up just a week before and for this reason was particularly fearful of strangers. Crane and McCabe, attorneys for the Big Four railroad, have been engaged as Herrod's attorneys, and it is supposed from this that the railroad company will assist in his defense.

Indiana Youth, on Trip to Oklahoma, Entertained at Father's Home.

Medford, Okla., Dec. 11.—Eleven years ago when lightning struck and killed Mrs. Jacob Carney, near Vincennes, Ind., her husband was left with several small children. One of these, Arley, was placed in an orphan home and the father then drifted west, losing all traces of the lad and remarried at Medford. Recently several Indiana families moved to this locality accompanied by a 15-year-old boy, and while visiting with them Carney yesterday recognized the youth as his own son.

GEORGE ADE DENIES HE IS CRUSADING FOR BETTER PIE

Hoosier Humorist Relates Fable to Prove Why He Shouldn't Do It.

New York, Dec. 11.—On what seemed to be excellent authority, it was denied yesterday that Columbia university had any intention at present of establishing a course in scientific baking. It was not disputed, however, that the university authorities were much interested in the announcement from Lafayette, Ind., that Purdue university would add such a course of instruction to its cirriculum.

It appears, according to the news from Lafayette, that Winthrop E. Stone, the president of Purdue, has called into consultation a number of the most expert professional dough architects with the object of finding out if it is possible to start a school that shall produce an alumni capable of turning out baked food that the population of the middle west can eat and get away with it.

While there is not sufficient ground for a positive statement to that effect, there is some reason to believe that George Ade is at the bottom of the new movement at Purdue to advance the cause of scientific pie and hygienic tarts. Ade, as is well known by everybody who can tell the difference between slang and patois, was turned out of Purdue in the year 1887, since which time he has retained the lively interest which he came to feel for his alma mater dolorosa during his happy undergraduate years, when he was becoming an authority on the drink evil.

Ade Denies Giving Royalties.

Mr. Ade was found yesterday in a certain place, closely studying the methods of a number of gentlemen who were manufacturing buns. The following conversation ensued:

"Is it true, Mr. Ade, that you are booming the new baking school at Purdue and that you have even gone so far as to endow it with one week's royalties produced by the New York run of 'Artie'?"

Mr. Ade reached for the coffee bean tray, made a gesture of annoyance, and replied in his well known capitalized manner:

"Who Told You That?"

"I didn't say anybody told me."

"Well," returned Mr. Ade, somewhat testily, "A Part of it isn't True, at all Events. I didn't give Purdue those Royalties. What I might have done had Circumstances been Different I cannot Say. But the Fact is, it chanced that that Week I happened to stand in Need of a New hat. So I endowed Myself with a Lid, and that's what Became of those Royalties."

Uses Romance to Explain.

"How about the other half of the inquiry?"

Mr. Ade replied to this question by relating the following overcapitalized narrative:

"Once upon a Time there was a Piercing Scream, whose stage name was Harold. Six days a Week he stirred Dough at an east side Bakery, where the Master Baker had a Habit of Cursing Him under the appellation of Bill. But on Sundays Bill sallied forth to evaporate the Thirteen Per which he made the other Six Days by studious Inattention to Work at such times when he became Harold.

"Now, Harold loved a Flossie who typewrote in a Downtown Bucket Shop, whose name was Gladys. It really was Gladys. And the Main Squeeze in her Office Worshiped the Ground She Walked on. Thus she held down her Job.

"For, Truth to tell, Gladys, as a Typewriter, was a Canadian Frost. She probably was the Simplest Speller in the World and would often Pause in her Work to ask the Main Squeeze if you spelled Cat with a K, and if you didn't, why, then, How Did You?

Harold Passes for Ready Money.

"Now Harold lived in an abandoned Closet in East Houston street. It had no Window, so Harold slept with the Door open. He had no Razor, so he allowed a plentous crop of Alfalfa to obscure what passed for his Features.

"But he had a Pair of Glisteners for his Feet, and every Sunday he leased the Undertaker's Coat and a Plug hat from a Costumer, and sallied Forth on his Errand of Love, bearing always some Gift, usually Flowers—real Flowers—Flowers that Smelled—Flowers that it took the Mazoomah to acquire.

"Now Gladys thought Harold the White Haired Boy with his Wealthy Parents. He told her his Immediate Male Ancestor made so much Coin each Day he had to be Excavated each Night. And he, Harold, had to do the Digging. Sunday was the only Day when the People did not shower Simoleons upon his Parent.

"To be sure, it didn't take Gladys long to Tumble to the Fact that her Son Heir was so much Gelt, for Harold was decidedly Near. In fact, it sometimes seemed to Her that he didn't Love a Dollar any more than he Loved his Life. And she often wished, indeed, that he would Loosen.

Yuletide Spirit Fatal.

"And now Came on the Merry Yule-Tide, with Peace-on-Earth-Good-Will-to-Men, and Harold Wished to do Something Extra Special to Show His Love. So He Built a Wonderful Cake. In Its Insides this Village Cut-Up placed Nuts, Raisins, Plums, Fruits, Preserves, Truffles, and many other varieties of Junk that He had thoughtfully Held Out from Cakes that were being Constructed in his Bakery for Regular Customers who were Soft enough to Give Up. When It was Done It looked like a Fall Hat after the Iron Workers had got through with It.

"And having, for Two Weeks, made his Breakfast upon Stale Bread, Harold on Christmas Afternoon Inserted Himself and the Cake into a Hack and was Driven to the Home of Gladys, where he Received the Mitt Hilarious.

"Thence he vanished Shortly, explaining that there was a Family Party at Home and his Fond Rich Parents would Disinherit Him if He were absent Thence on Such an Occasion. In Reality he had to Hike for the Bakery, because the One Night Shift had Croaked.

"So Gladys trustingly Engulfed a Slice of That Cake That Very Night, and They Do Say Her Funeral was One of the Neatest Ever Pulled off in the Yorkville District.

"Moral—The first: Adhere to the Main Squeeze with all the Tenacity of Your Loving Nature.

"Moral—Second: Hardware is All the Candy in a Foundry, but Cake should resemble Food."

GREEN MOTORMAN HELD LEVER WHEN WRECK OCCURRED

Incompetent Man Running New York Central Train When Disaster Came.

New York, Dec. 11.—Testimony taken yesterday at the trial of Alfred H. Smith, general manager of the New York Central railway, charged with manslaughter in the second degree because of the Brewster express wreck in February, showed that E. R. Rogers, the engineer, had but four days' actual experience in running one of the new electric trains, and had never been taught to gauge the speed while running such trains.

Rogers thought his train was running about forty-five miles an hour when the disaster, in which twenty-three lives were lost, occurred. Experts will seek to prove that the speed was not less than sixty miles an hour. Rogers admitted never before having run a train with the controller turned on full.

Rely on Machinery, Not Men.

Assistant District Attorney Smythe, addressing the jury at the opening of the trial, said he would show that the mechanical efficiency of the new electric locomotives was believed by the New York Central authorities to be so high that no scruples were felt in placing men in charge of them who had had little or no experience with such engines. Rogers, the driver when the accident occurred, said Mr. Smythe, was approved by General Manager Smith and placed in control of the express after but four days' actual experience with one new train and some desultory work in subway trains during the strike. Mr. Smythe continued:

"Sending out such men constituted criminal negligence, and on that theory we expect you to convict the defendant."

Samuel Bickford, road foreman in charge of electric train equipment, testified that in 1905 he had gone to Schenectady to study the electric railroad proposition and had run engines there on special testing tracks and in the shops.

Mail Course in Running Trains.

"Where did you ever study electric engineering?" Bickford was asked.

"Mostly by practice," he replied, "but the theoretical part especially through a correspondence school."

"You mean you studied running these trains by mail?" Mr. Smythe asked.

"No; I studied the art of electric engineering by mail or correspondence, but the running of trains was a matter of practice."

CZAR'S AID ASKS FOR $93,000,000.

Budget Received by Russian Duma in Conciliatory Spirit.

St Petersburg, Dec. 11.—In making the budget statement in the duma yesterday M. Kokovsoff, the finance minister, pointed out that to cover the extraordinary expenditure about $93,000,000 would be needed, and, in the government's opinion, this sum could only be procured by credit operations. The statement was received in a conciliatory spirit.

Among the items of expenditure which have caused the necessity of raising a loan the minister mentioned an increase of $28,000,000 for national defense, $27,000,000 for the army, $6,000,000 for the navy and $23,000,000 for improvement in communications.

M. Yeropkin, the Octoberist spokesman, opened the debate in a spirit quite different from that manifested in the second duma. He professed readiness to sanction expenditures, the necessity for which was demonstrated.

THREE IMPLICATED IN MURDER OF INFANT.

ter of Union township, found the dead body of a child whom Mrs. Lizzie Zigler, of that neighborhood, identified as being Hazel Cooper, the ten months old daughter of Mrs. Stephen Cooper, of Indianapolis.

Lane was on the banks of the stream laying a fish trap when he noticed something pink in the water on the opposite shore. His curiosity prompted him to make an investigation and he found the body of the baby girl four inches below the water's surface. The child had on a bright pink dress, white coat and hood and black shoes and stockings. Lane summoned Coroner Benham to the scene.

Before removing the body the leaves were scraped away from the earth and the prints of a woman's shoe could plainly be seen in the moist sod. The body was taken to St. John's church, where the clothing was removed and the body examined No marks of violence was found and the flesh was in a perfect state of preservation despite the fact that it is believed to have been in the water at least four days.

Body Is Examined.

The remains were brought to Columbus last night by Coroner Benham and a second examination made. Coroner Benham asked questions of people of the Taylorville neighborhood and learned that Mrs. Cooper was in Taylorville last Friday with the child and people say that when she left on Saturday that the little girl was not with her. She was seen on the Newton farm, where she had formerly been employed as a domestic.

Mrs. Cooper was formerly Frances Foxworthy. She is the wife of Stephen Cooper, who was sentenced in the Bartholomew circuit court last December to the Jeffersonville reformatory, having been found guilty of petit larceny. In February the child was born.

MOTHER CONFESSES; ESCAPES

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 11.—Mrs. Stephen Cooper confessed the murder of her 10 months old daughter, Hazel, when seen by a reporter. The child was found dead in a quiet stream which runs through a dense woods on John Newton's land, four miles west of Taylorsville, Ind., by George Lane, a fisherman. The body was thought to have lain in the water about four days in the judgment of Coroner Benham, of Taylorsville. It was identified by Mrs. Lizzie Zigler as the ten months old daughter of Mrs. Stephen Cooper, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Cooper was roused late last night and when confronted with the facts at first denied that she had a daughter. When pressed further she said "My God, what shall I do? I did it but I was nearly crazy." She looked haggard, and in another breath said "I cannot sleep. I couldn't find a home for it. It was nearly a week ago."

The police were notified but when they arrived she had escaped. Mrs. Cooper was described to the police as being about 5 feet 4 inches tall with dark hair and eyes, high cheek bones and 120 pounds in weight.

FATHER JENKINS INDICTED.

This is the first indictment against the elder Jenkins, but his sons already have been indicted on other charges.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 11.—The wheat market today opened weak because of lower cables and the easier tone in the stock market. Later prices rallied on good buying by commission houses. May opened a shade to ⅜@½c lower at 99½c to 99⅝c and then sold at $1.00¼. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 653 cars.

The wheat market became strong in the last half of the session in sympathy with corn. May sold up to $1.00⅝. The close was strong with May up ⅝@¾c at $1.00⅝.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 11.—Initial prices of stocks today as a rule did not vary much from yesterday's closing, but the general tone was easy.

Sugar was offered freely and dropped 3 points. Reading and Delaware & Hudson were also under pressure and yielded a point. There were a few notable exceptions to the tendency, including Northern Pacific, which improved 1 point and American Smelting, 1¾.

Stock came on the market in more abundant supply. The strained monetary condition and the expectation of reduced dividends on several stocks prompted the selling. American Sugar lost 3¾, American Telephone and Telegraph 3½, Delaware & Hudson 2¼, Pacific Mail 1½, Brooklyn Transit and Missouri Pacific 1⅝, Union Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, and Pressed Steel Car 1¼, and Southern Pacific, New York Central, Anaconda, American Car, American Tobacco preferred and Peoples Gas 1. American Smelting surrendered its opening advance, but the metal stocks generally offered resistance to the pressure.

Call loans were made at 20 per cent and the professionals began to sell stocks more freely. Most every stock of recognized prominence was forced down a point or more. Liquidation in American Sugar exerted a very unfavorable influence on industrials, American Sugar falling 5, Brooklyn Transit 2½, and Reading, Missouri Pacific and Distillers Securities 2. Baltimore & Ohio advanced 1¾.

Bonds were heavy.

The market took a slow upward turn in the early afternoon and a considerable portion of the morning losses were recovered. The Hill stocks, St. Paul, Southern Pacific and several of these specialties made full recoveries and the decline in Reading and Union Pacific was reduced to a small fraction. Southern Railway preferred advanced 2 points, New York Central was forced down 1¾, Atlantic Coast Line 2, and Pressed Steel Car preferred 2½.

The market closed easy. Business livened up considerably in the final hour and the highest prices of the day were made. Heavy short covering in American Smelting started a demand for the favorite railroad stocks and the whole list moved up strongly. American Smelting gained 3½, Third Avenue and Pacific Coast second preferred 3, Western Union 2, St. Paul 1½ and Reading, Southern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Amalgamated Copper and American Car 1. Pittsburg Coal preferred dropped 7. Profit taking began in the last few minutes of business.

NEWRAILWAY SYSTEM.

Hawley ndicate Combining Three Systems In One.

News fm New York indicates that the Haw syndicate has purchased the Cincinati, Hamilton and Dayton road andwill combine it with the Clover Lf and the Alton and create a systemof railway lines which will have thchortest routes between Toledo andKansas City, Cincinnati and Kansas ty and through connections at Tolec with the Lake Shore the shortestoute between Kansas City and eastn points. Concerning the new sym the Cincinnati Enquirer says: n practically every feature of the stem as planned there will be a marial saving of distance and time. nder present conditions the distancfrom Toledo to Kansas City, via St.ouis, over the Clover Leaf and Alp is 773 miles. By avoiding St. Lot and utilizing the C., H. & D. trac from Metcalf to Springfield the dince will be 688, a saving of 85 mil. The present short route betweencinnati and Kansas City throu St. Louis is 618 miles, while the w line, via Springfield as contempted, will cut the distance four hour Railroad people throughout the couny were mystified when the little Clov Leaf took over the Alton and speation was rife as to what was conmplated for the future of the conslidation. Greater surprise was expssed when Theodore P. Shonts waselected president of the 450-mile sysm at a salary of $25,000 a year. Wi the bringing of the C., H. and D. intthe combination the mystery disapars and it is clearly seen where thoriginal promoters had figured out grt advantages and the formation of ne of the most compact, comprehelive and valuable little railway syems that has been designed in th country in recent ycars."

LAKE SHORE FLYER SLOWS UP.

The rumor published in The Sentinel over a week ago that the Twentieth Century limited train of the Lake Shore was going to lengthen its running time between New York and Chicago to nineteen and a half hours has been confirmed by official notice of such change from railway headquarters. The change takes place next Sunday. Beginning then the train will leave Chicago at 1 p. m. daily, instead of the present time of 2:30, reaching New York at 9:30 the following morning, the same time as now. The westbound train will leave New York at 3 p. m. instead of 3:30, and will reach Chicago at 9:30 a. m., instead of 8:30. The Pennsylvania Special, the eighteen-hour train, will continue in service on the present schedule. It leaves Chicago at 2:45 p. m. and reaches New York at 9:45 a. m.; leaves New York at 3:55 p. m. and arrives in Chicago at 8:55 a. m., the apparent discrepancy in time being accounted for by the change of an hour between eastern and central time.

Rev. A. S. Preston, pastor of the First M. E. church at Wabash, and formerly pastor of Wayne Street M. E. church in this city, was in Fort Wayne today, enroute to Wabash, from his farm in Steuben county. Rev. Mr. Preston stated that in all probability he would not accept an appointment from the next North Indiana M. E. conference, which meets in April, but that he would take a vacation of several months from work and recuperate. Rev. JUVENILE COURT WORK.

Theme of Judge Thurston, of Chicago, Before Men's Club.

Judge Thurston, of Chicago, was the speaker at the monthly session of the Men's club of the First Presbyterian church last evening, and the Chicago man talked most entertainingly of the work of the juvenile courts and the probation officers in Chicago, in their efforts to deal intelligently with boys and girls who overstep the laws, and who by proper handling may be reclaimed and made useful citizens instead of becoming hardened criminals. The address was one of the best ever delivered to this organization, and it is the intention later to secure Judge Lindsay, of Denver, for an address along similar lnies.

SEVEN MEN DIE BY THE COLLAPSE OF NEW BRIDGE

High Water Wrecks Structure Over the Susquehanna River.

Bloomsburg, Pa., Dec. 11.—High water last night caused the collapse of a new bridge in course of erection over the west branch of the Susquehanna river at Mifflinville, eight miles north of here, and resulted in the death of seven men and the injury of nearly a score of others, two perhaps fatally.

Forty men were at work on the traveler on the middle span of the structure when it collapsed. They were all thrown into the swollen river.

Water's Rise Is Rapid.

The collapse of the bridge was caused by the rapid rise in the river. The water rose during the day at the rate of almost one foot an hour, and debris carried down the stream by the flood struck the false work of the bridge and caused its collapse.

This theory is supported by the testimony of one of the workmen, who says that a large tree trunk struck the false work just before the bridge fell.

The accident occurred just at nightfall, when the men were preparing to abandon their work. As a result, the work of rescuing those who were thrown into the water and caught in the mass of twisted iron and steel was greatly retarded.

The second span of the bridge was being erected, and it was this section that fell with the big traveler.

Victims Carried Mile Away.

Many of the men were caught in the rapid water and carried a mile or more down the river before they were rescued. One of the most miraculous escapes was that of William Nesbet, who was caught in the iron work and held a prisoner for an hour with his mouth and chin above water before being rescued.

WOMEN PAY FINES AND PROMISE TO STOP THE SALE

Bawdy House Keepers Will Not Sell Liquor—The Court News.

Following the decision handed down by Judge O'Rourke yesterday that the blind tiger indictments returned by the last grand jury are valid, keepers of houses of ill fame went to the circuit court today and paid fines in one of the two cases against each of them and promised that they would stop the sale of intoxicants in their places. As an evidence of good faith they will be asked to surrender the government license under which they have heretofore operated.

Grace White paid $50 and costs for selling liquor and $10 and costs for keeping a house of ill fame. Leona Ashby was in court this afternoon ready to plead guilty and all of the women will follow suit. One case is still held against each of them and the next conviction means a mandatory jail sentence and these indictments will be held as clubs over the women to make them keep their promises. Henry Getz was fined $25 and costs for renting a house for illegal purpurposes.

A Limited Separation.

After the evidence in the suit of William S. Hudson against Emma Hudson had been completed, Judge S. L. Morris, who was appointed to hear the case suggested that the pleading all be changed and a limited separation be asked for as he could not under the conditions give the man a divorce. This will be in all probability done and the court will then dispose of the children involved.

Will Inspect Bridge.

The county commissioners held a short session in their court room this morning and adjourned to go to Woodburn to examine the bridge that has just been constructed over the Maumee.

If You Need a Stove

It is certainly an appropriate thing to put a Christmas card on. It doesn't make any difference whether you buy it for your wife, or vice versa. It's a common sense proposition from all points of view. We have heating stoves of all kinds, some to take off the chill before starting the largest fire, and some to heat the room the furnace doesn't seem to reach in zero days.

If its a good thing Seavey's have it
